DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1 and 2 are finally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Applicant is now apparently trying to claim a "kit" that contains both the driver and the fastener and that the invention is neither the driver nor the fastener, but the combination of both. Claim 1, however still does not agree with the drawings as the working inner portion (20) is clearly not "adjacent to the handle end" (16) as clearly shown in figure 1. Further, as the fastener is now claimed as part of the invention, its recitation is also misleading and vague in claim 1 as the driver "working outer portion" (22) is claimed as "snugly receivable by the working outer portion". Thus it appears that the driver engages itself.

With respect to claim 2, how does the handle end (16) fit into the support shaft (74)? There is still no support for any combination of embodiments into one embodiment. The ambiguity apparently arises from the use of the term "shaft" to mean both the driver shaft (14) of the first embodiment and the various shaped and sized bits of the second embodiment of figure 5. The two are not the same and thus there is still confusion in the claims.

3. Normally a claim which fails to comply with the first and/or second paragraph of § 112 will not be analyzed as to whether it is patentable over the prior art since to do so would of necessity require speculation with regard to the metes and bounds of the claimed subject matter, In re Steele, 308 F.2d 859, 862-63, 134 USPQ 292, (CCPA 1962) and In re Wilson, 424 F.2d 1382, 1385, 496 USPQ 494, 496 (CCPA 1970).

Response to Arguments

4. Applicant's arguments filed 19 March 2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

It is still unclear as to what applicant believes the invention to be as the wording in the claims is vague and indefinite.

Conclusion

5. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

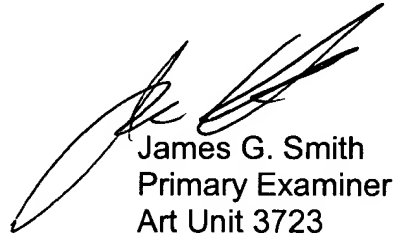

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
